

Headline Report

Meeting number: Meeting 23

Date of meeting: Wednesday 23 August 2017

Location: WebEx

This note sets out the headlines from the latest meeting of the Joint European Stakeholder Group (JESG) and is provided in addition to the presentations from the meeting which are available on the JESG website¹. The material in the presentation is not duplicated in this report.

If you have any queries in relation to the content of this report, please email the JESG Technical Secretary Heena Chauhan at europeancodes.electricity@nationalgrid.com

• JESG Actions Review

- The Technical Secretary noted the JESG Standing Actions and updates on current actions. The current version of the JESG action log, including any additions from this meeting, is attached to this Headline Report.

• CACM Day ahead and intraday capacity calculation methodology consultation update, Rob Selbie, National Grid

- Rob Selbie (RS) provided an update on CACM Day ahead and intraday capacity calculation methodology consultation.
- RS highlighted the differences between the Channel methodology presented in July, and the IU methodology presented here.
- RS highlighted that industry feedback to the consultation regarding the treatment of remedial actions would be valuable.
- Feedback is required by 17 September 2017. Regulators will then have six months to consider their decision and during this period there will be another opportunity for the industry to provide feedback. A decision is expected in March 2018.

• Emergency and Restoration Code, Rachel Woodbridge-Stocks, National Grid

- Rachel Woodbridge-Stocks (RWS) provided an update on the Emergency and Restoration Code.
- Barbara Vest (BV) noted that it would also be useful for trade associations to be involved in this exercise. GG and Mike Kay (MK) suggested using existing networks and forums as a sensible way forward.
