Daily Balancing Costs

_Commentary_

Low levels of demand overnight meant that pumped storage was utilised and wind output was reduced. System inertia and voltage support were the main concerns for the day due to low demands and inerconnector swings. These were resolved through both BM actions and trades. Wind also featured and output was reduced via BM Actions and Trades.

Western Link status: Unavailable