EBGL Article 52 ISH Amendment Consultation

Dear Industry and Colleagues,

This consultation is being run with industry to allow National Grid ESO (NGESO) to amend the Imbalance Settlement Harmonisation (ISH) article 10(4)1 related to Article 52, both of which sit underneath the Electricity Balancing Guidelines (EBGL).

This consultation will focus on an amendment to the methodology to allow the UK to continue to use the Market Index Price (MIP) in its settlement calculation and NGESO are welcoming the views of the market and stakeholders.

The suite of documents that make up this consultation are:

1. Consultation Cover Letter;
2. NGESO EBGL A52 Consultation Document;
3. NGESO EBGL A52 Track Changed Methodology for Consultation
4. Consultation Response Proforma.

Please review the documentation and provide your responses using the Consultation Response Proforma. The consultation shall close on the 21st June 2021, at 5pm. Your response should be sent to: balancingservices@nationalgrideso.com.

Yours sincerely,

Mark Herring
