

Grid Code Constitution and Rules – Proposed Update

After the recent “Go-Active” of the industry code changes required for the implementation of the offshore transmission regime, the Grid Code Constitution and Rules requires minor amendment. Specifically clause 5.1 c (xi) which relates to the number of permitted Grid Code Review Panel members representing Relevant Transmission Licensees which after Offshore Go- Active includes Offshore Transmission Owners (OFTO). At this point in time no OFTOs have been appointed. This clause mirrors clause GC 4.3 in the Grid Code which was amended at Go-Active.

The Constitution and Rules does not form a direct part of the Grid Code document but is required to be established and maintained by the Panel under GC 4.4. Consequently, if the Panel agrees that changes are required the agreed changes will be submitted directly by the Chairman to the Authority for approval.

The proposed changes to the Constitution and Rules are shown below with proposed changes highlighted:
